His task, it is admitted, is almost hopeless, and neither Martin nor Gilroy, who represent Tammany, had very strong hopes this morning that harmony would be effected.

As the situation now is there are two Democratic candidates in six of the Congressional districts of this city. It is understood that Bartlett is not willing to pull out in the Seventh, and Mr. Walsh is equally determined to stick as a can-

The whole United States Senate could hardly harmonize Miner and Campbell in the Ninth, and in the Tenth, Tammany politicians think Gen. Sickles will insist on fighting it out. He is regarded, however, by the Grace people as more likely to give way to a State Democracy man in order to bring about harmony than any other of the Tammany nominees, and in case of a compromise, he and Cantor, of the Fifteenth, might be the sacrifices.

James D. Bell, Chairman of the General Committee, said this morning that he believed the action of the Executive Committee in voting down the proposition of Mr. Shepard for harmony was final. He drafted a letter to Mr. Shepard this morning informing him of the action taken at the meeting last night.

That Mr. Shepard had hoped for a compromise is believed from the fact that a committee of three, composed of himself, Mr. Patterson and Mr. Secardi, had been appointed by the organization to arrange with the regulars.

Everybody at Democratic headquarters in Brooklyn this morning seemed satisfied with the decision of the Executive Committee. Mr. Beil, however, is still in favor of harmony, even with concessions and sacrifice of candidates.

William R. Davenport, the Public Administrator, was notified this morning that he had been selected to succeed George Kinkel as nominee for Comptroller. It is understood that Mr. Davenjort will accept the nomination. He is a popular lawyer, and was recently appointed Administrator for a second term.
